Odyssey Systems Awarded TAASC Task Order valued at $ 7.8 Million

Odyssey team will provide expert Advisory and Assistance Support Services to the 498th Missile Sustainment Group.

Wakefield, MA, March 31, 2008: Odyssey Systems Consulting Group was recently awarded a Tinker Advisory & Assistance Services Contract (TAASC) Task Order to provide program and project management, engineering, administration and weapon system sustainment support activities to the 498th Missiles Sustainment Group at Tinker AFB, OK.

Randy Nunley, Odyssey's Director of Air Force Programs commented: "Odyssey Systems is extremely pleased to have the opportunity to support the 498th Missile Sustainment Group (MSUG). Our goal is to provide the unparalleled support for which Odyssey is widely known assisting the 498th in their mission of managing and maintaining the operational readiness of the Air Force's inventory of over 2000 missiles. Our implementation of process-based services will prove to be a cost-effective solution while increasing the productivity of the work force supporting the MSUG".

Odyssey TAASC Program Manager, Larry Williams commented "Odyssey and our TAASC Partners are eager to expand our support to AFMC operations at Tinker AFB and the Missile Program. We have an outstanding team in place to ensure timely and cost effective support for the Warfighter."

Odyssey Systems Team members on this Task Order include: MTC Technologies.
